

To the Members of the California State Senate:

While I strongly support efforts to ensure Californians have access to flu vaccines, I am unable to support Senate Bill 1220 as it would require a new, unnecessary bureaucracy within state government and increase state costs. I encourage vaccine distributors, professional organizations and physicians to work together to create non-governmental solutions that make it easier for small physician practices to access the flu vaccines.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger